CLASSIC ANTARCTICA AIR-CRUISE

Punta Arenas + Antarctica + Punta Arenas

Travel Program

Jumping over Cape Horn and the mythical waters of the Drake Passage, ANTARCTICA XXI invites you to a unique experience that will take you to one of the most remote places on earth, the coldest, highest, windiest, driest, and most inhospitable continent - Antarctica.

Day 1 Arrival at the city of Punta Arenas where you will be met by Antarctica XXI staff, to be transferred to Hotel Rey Don Felipe. During the afternoon, you will meet your expedition mates and receive instructions concerning the guidelines that should be followed in Antarctica and the procedures for Zodiac boat embarkation and disembarkation. Later, you will enjoy our welcome dinner at the José Nogueira Hotel, a French-style mansion that is over one hundred years old.

N.B. Passengers should be in Punta Arenas at 15:00 hours, at the latest.

Day 2 Our Antarctic adventure will begin with the flight from Punta Arenas to King George Island (South Shetland Islands). The flight takes a little over one and half hour. Upon arrival, we will be able to tour around the area where the Frei Chilean Base and the Bellingshausen Russian Base are located. We will gather at the beach on Fildes Bay for embarkation by Zodiac boats on board our expedition vessel.

Days 3 to 6 While cruising between the South Shetland Islands and the western coast of the Antarctic Peninsula, sailing along ice-filled fjords and between spectacular icebergs, we will enjoy the company of sea birds, penguins, seals and whales. Our journey southwards will include visits to some of the most magnificent spots in the white continent, such as: Livingston Island, Port Lockroy, Petermann Island, Paradise Bay, Cuverville and Deception Islands amongst others. Our target will be the crossing of the Lemaire Channel and latitude 65° South.

Our adventure will be very active, with several daily landings and cruises in Zodiac boats, lectures and a very enjoyable time on board.

Day 7 Return to King George Island where we will disembark, in Zodiac boats, at the Frei Chilean Base, and head to the aerodrome to take the flight back to Punta Arenas. The program ends upon arrival at the Airport in Punta Arenas.

Transfer to the city will be available for passengers staying overnight in Punta Arenas. One complimentary night at Hotel Rey Don Felipe in Punta Arenas is offered upon request on Day 7 of the Travel Program.

Baggage allowance The maximum weight allowed on the flights to and from Antarctica is 20 kg per passenger, including hand luggage. Exceeding luggage will be kept in custody by ANTARCTICA XXI and will be returned to passengers upon their return from Antarctica at the port/airport of arrival corresponding to each voyage.

Medical insurance ANTARCTICAXXI strongly urges participants to be adequately covered by a medical insurance, including aero-medical evacuation from Antarctica.

Participation Form Passengers are required to fill and sign a Participation Form, and to return it to ANTARCTICA XXI duly filled at least 60 days prior to departure.

Itinerary Every effort will be made to adhere to the planned program. However, it must be realized that with this type of adventurous travel to Antarctica, changes to the itinerary may occur due to severe and unpredictable weather. We need to emphasize the fact that weather conditions are unpredictable and that safety is always the paramount concern on any Antarctic voyage. For this reason ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to change the itinerary here described due to weather conditions or other factors beyond ANTARCTICA XXI's control without consulting the participants.

Flight connexions A tight time-schedule connection with an Antarctic expedition is unwise. For this reason, Antarctica XXI strongly suggests that a flexible air ticket be held for your journey home, and in any case not to book a flight on the same day of the return flight from Antarctica.

Contingency Plan In case that the flight to or from Antarctica cannot take place due to unfavourable weather conditions either at point of origin and/or destination, ANTARCTICA XXI will apply the Contingency Plan corresponding to each voyage.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

ANTARCTICA XXI carries out Antarctic air-cruises since 2003. The experience of these years has allowed developing a profound knowledge of the delicate coordination between the air and the sea operation in an extreme environment as Antarctica.

It is important considering that until present no air-cruise has ever been cancelled due to the impossibility to fly to Antarctica, and that the longest delay ever suffered has been 2 days. Consequently, ANTARCTICA XXI is able to estimate that the chances that an Antarctic flight suffers 1 day delay are very low, about 5%-10%.

However, in the light of these considerations, in the unlikely event that the flight to Antarctica cannot take place due to unfavourable conditions either at point of origin and/or destination, ANTARCTICA XXI has established a Contingency Plan, applying from Day 2 the Travel Program corresponding to each voyage.

CONTINGENCY PLAN FOR THE CLASSIC ANTARCTICA AIR-CRUISE

From Day 2 to Day 6 every effort will be made to transport passengers to Antarctica taking into consideration their safety and the safety of the aircraft. In case such efforts are not successful, the daily program described hereby will apply:

- Day 2 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.
- Day 3 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.
- Day 4 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.
- Day 5 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.
- Day 6 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.
- Day 7 Breakfast. Transfer to Punta Arenas airport in time for connecting flights. End of the Contingency Plan.

N.B. If on Day 6, ANTARCTICA XXI will not be able to transport passengers to Antarctica, Antarctica XXI will refund to each passenger 40% of the total cost of the Travel Program. Refunding will take place at ANTARCTICA XXI's earliest convenience and will release Antarctica XXI from any further liability.

Return flight In case of a delay on the return flight to Punta Arenas from Antarctica, passengers on board the ship will continue cruising to nearby places until the return flight to Punta Arenas is authorized. Full board and all excursions are included. No refunding for whatever reason is foreseen.

CONTINGENCY PLAN FOR

EXPRESS AIR-CRUISE

In case of a delay on the return flight to Punta Arenas from Antarctica, passengers on board the ship will continue cruising to nearby places until the return flight to Punta Arenas is authorized. Full board and all excursions are included. No refunding for whatever reason is foreseen.

EXPERIENCE AIR-CRUISE

From Day 2 to Day 5 every effort will be made to transport passengers to Antarctica taking into consideration their safety and the safety of the aircraft. In case such efforts are not successful, the daily program described hereby will apply:

Day 2 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.

Day 3 Guided tour to sites of historic and wildlife interest close to Punta Arenas. Lunch is included. Dinner and lodging in Punta Arenas or in the surrounding area.

N.B. If on Day 5, ANTARCTICA XXI will not be able to transport passengers to Antarctica, Antarctica XXI will refund to each passenger 40% of the total cost of the Travel Program. Refunding will take place at ANTARCTICA XXI's earliest convenience and will release Antarctica XXI from any further liability.

AIRCRAFT FOR ANTARCTIC FLIGHTS

Keeping in mind that safety is the paramount concern on any Antarctic voyage, ANTARCTICA XXI informs its passengers that all efforts will be made to fulfil the flights between Punta Arenas and Frei Station, or vice versa, with the aircraft foreseen to this end. However, ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to fly a substitute aircraft, in case of unfavourable conditions or other factors beyond ANTARCTICA XXI's control, either at point of origin and/or destination, which may put at risk the safety of the air operation. The use of a substitute aircraft will be carried out exclusively and absolutely according to ANTARCTICA XXI's judgement. It is understood that such decision will be made with regard to improving the safety of the flight, and in the best interests of all the passengers.

USEFUL TIPS

Suggested clothing The average temperature in the Antarctic Peninsula area ranges round about 0°C (32°F), although sometimes it may get a little lower because of the chill factor caused by the wind.

For this reason, it is best to wear several layers of light, warm clothing, with a windproof and waterproof jacket and pants as outside layer. The suggest clothing for Antarctica is very similar to skiing equipment.

- Thermal socks
- Thermal underwear, including sweatshirts and turtlenecks.
- Fleece jacket and trousers
- Waterproof hooded parka
- Insulated waterproof trousers
- Thermal gloves or mittens.
- Polar cap, hat or balaclava hood
- Swimsuit (for possible hot spring dips)
- Comfortable cloths to wear on board (temperature 20°-22°C or 68-72F)
- Comfortable rubber-soled shoes to wear on board.

Waterproof boots As most landings in Antarctica are “wet landings”, the best footwear is knee-high waterproof boots. You will not need to carry them with you since ANTARCTICA XXI will provide you with a pair of thermal rubber boots before arriving in Antarctica.

Face protection Good quality UV filtering sunglasses are essential. Glacier glasses have leather flaps at the sides to stop the light from passing through. Due to the high reflectance of UV radiation, you will also need good sun block lotion for your face (protection factor 30 and above) and lip balm.

Photography To see the wildlife, you should have a good pair of lightweight binoculars (best degree of magnification 7 or 8X30). If you are passionate about photography, do not forget a good zoom lens to shoot wildlife and which avoids close approaches, and take with you a good supply of film rolls or memory sticks.

Do not forget to take with you spare batteries since cold temperatures can reduce their life span.

And furthermore... Do not forget to take with you:

- Personal medications
- Backpack to carry your belongings during shore excursions.

As well, do forget to inform us about your dietary restrictions, if any.

ANTARCTICA XXI shall not be liable for any special or consequential damages, whether known or unknown, neither for any costs of air ticket, hotel or similar expenses that the passenger may have incurred in, under any circumstances whatsoever.

ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right (in its sole and absolute discretion) to reschedule the departure and return of any tour at any time, without prior notification and no further obligation. ANTARCTICA XXI also reserves the right (in its sole and absolute discretion) to alter or omit any part of the itinerary with due notice to the passengers wherever practicable. Such rescheduling does not constitute a cancellation by ANTARCTICA XXI. All reasonable efforts will be made by ANTARCTICA XXI to ensure that the passenger's travel objectives are met.

ANTARCTICA XXI strongly suggests all passengers to purchase a travel cancellation and interruption insurance as protection against an unforeseen event which may force them to cancel their booking before departure or leave a tour while it is in progress.

Rates

The rates of the tour are based on tariffs and exchange rates applicable at the time of booking and are subject to change prior to departure. ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to modify the published rates without prior notice.

Responsibility

ANTARCTICA XXI is not responsible for any expenses incurred by the passenger or passenger's booking agents in preparing for the voyage, including non-refundable or penalty-carrying airline tickets, special clothing, visa or passport fees or other voyage related expenses.

A tight time-schedule connection with an Antarctic voyage is unwise. For this reason, ANTARCTICA XXI strongly suggests that a flexible air ticket be held for your journey home. In no case is ANTARCTICA XXI responsible for any expense or penalty incurred by the passenger or passenger's booking agents deriving from a change in the ending date of the Travel Program.

Participants should understand that there are certain known and unknown hazards involved in Antarctic voyages, which they accept willingly and voluntarily at their own risk at the moment of forwarding the Booking Fee. ANTARCTICA XXI will not be liable for any illness, injury or death sustained during an a tour, nor will it be liable for any uninsured loss or damage of property of any participant, whether caused in whole or in part by the negligence of the owners, directors, agents, officers, employees, contractors or subcontractors of ANTARCTICA XXI.

ANTARCTICA XXI shall not be responsible for any injury to persons (whether or not resulting in death) or damage to property arising out of any act of war, terrorism, insurrection, revolt or other civil or military uprising occurring in the countries of origin, destination or passage. Baggage is at the owner's risk entirely.

ANTARCTICA XXI acts only as agent on behalf of shipping and transport companies, airlines, hotels, and other suppliers providing services that are included in the tour, and as such ANTARCTICA XXI will exercise every possible care. However ANTARCTICA XXI, its subsidiaries and/or associated agents shall not be held responsible for property loss or damage and/or any damages resulting from illness, personal injuries or death that may be sustained by reason of, or while engaged on, any tour whether due to the ownership, maintenance, use, operation or control of any air, sea or land carrier or any other conveyance used in carrying out these tours. ANTARCTICA XXI can assume no liability due to any cause whatsoever whether caused by failure or delay or other irregularity, acts or omissions occurring during a tour under which the means of transportation or other service provided thereby is offered or supplied by owners, operators or public carriers for whom ANTARCTICA XXI acts only as agent. The Passenger Contract in use by the carriers concerned (when issued) shall constitute the sole contract between the transportation companies and the purchaser of these tours and/or passage.

ANTARCTICA XXI strongly urges participants to check with their insurance agent to make sure that they are adequately covered for all eventualities. In case of a medical problem arising during the tour, which results in costs for evacuation or repatriation, the responsibility for payment of these costs belongs solely to the passenger. ANTARCTICA XXI strongly advises that passengers ensure that such eventualities are covered by travel insurance. If not covered by travel insurance, the responsibility still remains with the passenger and ANTARCTICA XXI specifically declines any responsibility whatsoever.

ANTARCTICA XXI's staff, agents and representatives, other than an Officer of ANTARCTICA XXI, are not entitled to promise refunds for whatever reasons, and ANTARCTICA XXI will not be bound by any such oral or written promises.

Itinerary

ANTARCTICA XXI has the duty to advise you that all operations carried out in the Antarctic territory are subject to constantly changing weather conditions and that the safety and comfort of passengers and crew will never be put at risk by taking actions that may result in a disappointing end to a unique experience.

This is an voyage to a remote part of the world, and ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to change the itinerary described in the Travel Program due to weather conditions, availability of anchorages or landing sites, safety of the carrier and human lives, political conditions and other factors beyond ANTARCTICA XXI's control without consulting the participants. On any flight (to or from Antarctica), or in any sea operation, such operations will be carried out exclusively and absolutely according to the judgement of the Captain of the aircraft or the vessel, whose decision will be definite and will not be questioned by any party. It is understood that such decisions will be made in the best interests of all the passengers and with regard to the safety of the vessel and the aircraft. Participants have no right to any refund or other considerations in the event of these inevitable itinerary changes.

In case that departure to or from Antarctica cannot take place due to unfavourable weather conditions either at point of origin and/or destination, ANTARCTICA XXI will apply the Contingency Plan corresponding to each voyage.

Mean of conveyance, accommodation, infrastructure, and services

Keeping in mind that safety is the paramount concern, ANTARCTICA XXI will make all efforts to carry out the itinerary detailed in the Travel Program corresponding to each tour by using the means of conveyance, accommodation, infrastructure, and services foreseen to this end. However, ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to use substitute means of conveyance, accommodation, infrastructure, and/or services in case of unfavourable conditions or other factors that ANTARCTICA XXI considers convenient, either at point of origin and/or transit and /or destination.

The use of substitute means of conveyance, accommodation, infrastructure, and/or services will be carried out exclusively and absolutely according to

ANTARCTICA XXI's judgement. It is understood that such decision will be made with regard to ensuring the safety of air, land and sea operations, accomplishing the Travel Program foreseen for each tour, maintaining standards of service similar to the ones originally foreseen, and in the best interests of all the passengers

Participants have no right to any refund or other considerations in the event of using substitute means of conveyance, accommodation, infrastructure, and/or services.

Admittance

These tours are intended for persons in reasonably good health. By forwarding the Booking Fee, the passenger certifies that he/she does not have any physical or mental conditions or other condition or disability that can create a hazard to he/herself or other passengers, ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to exclude a passenger from part or all of the tour, should the passenger be considered by ANTARCTICA XXI to be not physically able or prepared to participate safely. Should a passenger's application for participation in a tour be justifiably declined by ANTARCTICA XXI prior to the scheduled date of departure of the tour, ANTARCTICA XXI will refund all payments received from the client less an administrative fee equivalent to 50% of the Booking Fee mentioned in the General Booking Terms, and this will be the limit of ANTARCTICA XXI's liability. ANTARCTICA XXI shall not be liable for any special or consequential damages, whether known or unknown, under any circumstances whatsoever. ANTARCTICA XXI's decision to decline a passenger's participation in any tour shall be taken in its sole and absolute discretion.

ANTARCTICA XXI's leaders and guides will do their utmost to ensure that any problems are solved for the benefit of the group and the voyage as a whole. Passengers accept ANTARCTICA XXI's authority (whether it be a Captain, Expedition Leader, Operations Manager or Field Guide) to make decisions affecting the group or individuals.

For instance, such leader may require an individual to leave the group and/or to be excluded from (continuation of) the tour (components) if he/she believes that person's health is at risk, if an illegal act is committed, or their behaviour becomes detrimental to the safety, enjoyment or wellbeing of the group. Should an ANTARCTICA XXI leader take such action, that person would not be entitled to any refund whatsoever. If the disturbing behaviour or damage (as described above) should occur, all costs resulting from this shall be charged to the passenger.

No Pets. No pets or animals are allowed on the Vessel.

8. CARRIER NOT LIABLE FOR PASSENGER'S MEDICAL CARE

Medical Services on Vessel. The Carrier does not undertake that a physician or medical personnel will be aboard the Vessel. If the Vessel does carry a physician or medical personnel, then they are independent contractors and work directly for the Passengers. Any physician or other medical personnel that renders emergency treatment and/or performs medical or surgical services, does so at the rates fixed in the "Schedule of Physician's Charges" posted aboard the Vessel or as otherwise agreed to, or in the absence thereof, then at customary rates.

Consent of Treatment. If, in the opinion of the carrier, a Passenger in need of medical or surgical services is unable to request it, the Passenger hereby expressly consents to such treatment, if any, and to pay the cost thereof charged by the Vessel's physician or other physician or medical personnel designated by the Carrier who in doing so is acting on behalf of the Passenger.

Treatment at Passenger's Risk. All medicines and all medical or surgical services furnished by the Vessel's physician, if any, or any other physician or medical personnel (all of whom are engaged by the Passenger as independent contractors) or ship's officers, employees or agents of the Carrier, shall be and are accepted by and at the Passenger's sole risk and expense, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for the quality, nature or consequence thereof.

Passenger's Obligation to Report Medical Conditions. Before this Ticket is issued, the Passenger must report to the Carrier or its general agent, all pre-existing illness, disabilities or pregnancy and all other conditions for which the Passenger may require medical attention during the course of the Cruise. If any such condition arises after the Ticket is issued, the Passenger must report all such conditions to the Carrier, Purser or Vessel's Master or physician, if any, before boarding, or if the Passenger has boarded the Vessel, then before the Vessel leaves port. The Carrier, Vessel and the Vessel's physician, if any, shall have no liability in connection with any such condition.

Lack of Obligation to Examine Passenger. Neither the carrier, nor the Vessel's physician, if any, has any obligation to examine any Passenger for any purpose prior to boarding or sailing.

Refusal of Passage. The Carrier reserves the right to refuse passage to a Passenger who has failed to give proper notice of any disability, illness, pregnancy or other condition requiring special care, attention or treatment or who in the Carrier's sole opinion is physically or mentally unfit for the Cruise. In such event, the Passenger is not entitled to any refund of fare.

9. CARRIER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL, SUBSTITUTE VESSELS AND CHANGE SCHEDULES AND PORTS

Changes in Vessel and Schedule. The Carrier may at any time, without notice, cancel or change the date of sailing or substitute vessels. The Passenger will have no claim against the Carrier for hotel or board bills, traveling expenses or other loss, delay, inconvenience or expense whatsoever by reason of any cancellation, change, or delay of sailing or in arrival of the Vessel.

Approximate Schedules. Sailing schedules and times of arrival and departure are only approximate and may be altered in the discretion of the Master or Carrier. Costs of food, accommodations and other expenses ashore are the sole responsibility of the Passenger, even if incurred while awaiting transshipment or a connecting carrier.

Deviations. Before or after the commencement of the Cruise, the Vessel and her Master shall have liberty to: proceed without pilots; tow and assist vessels, including those of the Carrier, in all situations; deviate from the usual advertised or scheduled route; put back to or into or to call or stop, or omit to call or stop, at any port or place, on land or at sea, in or out of the route of the usual, advertised or scheduled Cruise, even though doing so may involve going backwards or away from the port of destination; adjust compasses; dry-dock, go on ways and/or be towed. These things may be done for any reasons which are sufficient in the judgment of the Carrier or the Master, including but not limited to, offering or rendering assistance in an effort to preserve life or property.

Governmental and Underwriters' Orders. The Vessel and Master shall have the liberty to comply with all orders given by governmental or ruling authorities and the underwriters of the Vessel and the Carrier.

Interruption of Cruise. If the Vessel's Cruise is interrupted or if the Vessel is unduly delayed or prevented from proceeding in the ordinary course by; act of God; perils of the sea, harbors, rivers, or other navigable waters; act of any governmental or ruling authority; epidemic; collision; stranding; fire; faults or errors in navigation or management of this or of any other Vessel; seizure of the Vessel under legal process; any abrupt or unexpected increase in the cost of fuel or shortage of fuel; war; hostilities; riots; strikes or labor stoppages; or any other cause or circumstance beyond the Carrier's responsibility or control, the Carrier shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the Cruise and to land the Passenger and his Baggage at any port or place at which the Vessel may call at or may then be. In such event, this Contract shall be considered to have been fully performed as if the Cruise were completed and the responsibility of the carrier shall cease without any liability on the part of the Carrier to refund any part of the fare.

In the event that the Carrier cancels the Cruise for any one or more of the reasons set forth above and the Passenger has not yet embarked, the responsibility of the Carrier shall cease upon such cancellation without any liability on the part of the carrier to refund any part of the fare.

Changes in Ports. If the Master or Carrier, for any reason whatsoever considers it necessary or desirable in the good management of the Vessel or of the Carrier, they may cause the Vessel not to make calls at any port or ports or to land or board Passengers or their Baggage. A Passenger scheduled to land at an omitted port or place of final destination may be landed with his Baggage at the next practical port of call without any liability on the part of the Carrier. The Passenger must bear all expenses to such omitted port or place of final destination.

Carrier's Lien. The Carrier shall have a lien on (claim against and right to sell) the Baggage, money (including the fare) and any other property accompanying the Passenger to satisfy any claims it may have against the Passenger. The Carrier may enforce this lien by public or private sale in any manner and without notice except where required by applicable law.

Indemnity by Passenger. The Carrier shall have the right to be indemnified by the Passenger for all penalties, fines, charges, losses or expenses imposed upon or incurred by the Carrier or the Vessel because of the Passenger, or a minor or any other person in the Passenger's care.

10. REGULATIONS CONCERNING BAGGAGE, PERSONAL PROPERTY AND CARRIER'S LIABILITY THEREFOR

(a) Limitation of Shipments and Liability. The Carrier does not undertake to carry as Baggage any electronics, computers, merchandise, samples, furniture, household goods, tools of trade, property of persons other than the Passenger, pictures, works of art, perishable or breakable goods, glassware, liquids, bric-a-brac, money, securities and notes whether or not negotiable, documents, valuables, gold, silver, silverware, precious stones and metals or jewelry. If any such items or articles are brought aboard, the Passenger expressly agrees that the Carrier shall have no liability as bailee or Carrier or in any other capacity for loss or damage howsoever caused, even if by the negligence of the Carrier.

(b) Forbidden Items. The Passenger is not allowed to bring on board items or articles, the importation or exportation of which may be forbidden, or which do not conform to the customs or police regulations or the laws of any country to which the Vessel may go in the course of the Cruise. A Passenger who violates this rule will be held liable for all resulting fines, losses, damages or delays.

(c) Hazardous Items. The Passenger is not allowed to place in Baggage any firearms or any flammable or inflammable matter of any kind, such as matches, gunpowder, fireworks, cigarette lighters, cartridges, films, etc. The Carrier may dispose of or destroy such items without liability. The Passenger will be liable for the full amount of all loss, damage or delay to the Vessel or her cargo and for all injury to, or death of any of the Passengers, officers or crew or other persons caused by such hazardous articles brought on board by the Passenger.

(d) Allowable Weight or Cubage. Each Passenger is allowed to bring aboard Baggage not exceeding 250 pounds in weight and not exceeding 25 cubic feet in volume. The Passenger shall be charged for Baggage in excess thereof at the Carrier's current rate.

(e) Limitation of Carrier's Liability With Respect to Baggage. The Carrier's liability, if any, (and whether or not excess Baggage is carried, declared and paid for) is limited to Two Hundred and Fifty ($250) US dollars in the event of loss, damage, or delay to any or all of the Passenger's Baggage. The fare for the Cruise and the rate charged for excess Baggage are based in part on this limitation of Carrier's liability.

(f) Marking of Baggage. Each piece of baggage shall be marked with the Passenger's full name and address, cabin number, destination, and Vessel's name. The Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay resulting from the Passenger's failure to clearly mark each piece of Baggage as directed.

(g) Unclaimed Baggage. Baggage remaining unclaimed on arrival of the Vessel will be delivered to the Customs or other authorities and stored as designated by them and at the Passenger's sole risk and expense.

(h) Safe Deposit. A reasonable amount of space in a deposit box or safe on board, if the Vessel is so equipped, will be allowed to a Passenger upon request. But in consideration of the Carrier furnishing such deposit box or safe without extra cost, the Carrier's liability, if any, for loss of, or damage to, any items deposited therein shall neither be created nor increased beyond the limits set forth in Section 10(e) hereof by reason thereof.

Notice Required for Baggage Claim. Loss of or damage to Baggage during loading or disembarking must be reported by the Passenger to Carrier, Master, or Purser or other Vessel officer, prior to departing the Baggage pickup area. The Carrier shall not be responsible for any such loss or damage which is not so reported.

Suit Time for Baggage Claim. No suits shall be maintainable against the Vessel or the Carrier upon any claim in connection with this Contract relating to Baggage or any other property unless written notice of the claim, with full particulars, shall be delivered to the Carrier or its agent at its office at the port of sailing or at the port of termination within twenty-four (24) hours after termination of the Cruise. In no event shall any suit for any cause against the Vessel or Carrier with respect to Baggage or other property be maintainable unless such suit shall be commenced within six (6) months after termination of the Cruise.

Unchecked Baggage. The Carrier does not assume any responsibility for unchecked Baggage, nor for any items or articles which the Passenger retains under personal control in a cabin or elsewhere. In no event will the Carrier be liable for any damage to or loss of Baggage not in its custody.

General Average. The Passenger will not be liable to pay or entitled to receive any contribution in General Average in respect of Baggage taken with him on the Vessel.

11. CARRIER AS AGENT FOR OTHERS: USE OF SERVICES

Carrier as Agent. When the Carrier sells to the Passenger tickets, coupons, vouchers or authorization or makes arrangements for shore excursions, tours, travel or for transportation, conveyance, hotel accommodations, meals or other goods or services, the Carrier acts only as agent for those persons who, as independent contractors, own, furnish, operate, conduct, provide or handle such goods or services.

The Passenger expressly agrees that the carrier shall not be or become liable or responsible in any way for any act or omission pertaining to such goods or services or for loss, damage, delay, injury, illness or death to person or property arising out of or in connection with such goods or services so offered or provided.

Passenger's Use of Services. The Passenger using the services of the Vessel's barber, hairdressing, manicurist, or other personal service personnel, if carried on board, or athletic or recreational equipment, facilities or supplies, does so at the Passenger's own risk and expense, without any responsibility of the Carrier.

12. GENERAL LIMITATIONS ON CARRIER'S LIABILITY

The Carrier and the Vessel shall not be liable for loss, death, or delay of, or injury or illness to any Passenger, or loss of or damage or delay to his Baggage, arising from: act of God; public enemy; governmental restraint; riots; strikes; lockouts; labor troubles, whoever may be the instigators thereof; epidemic; civil disturbances of whatever nature; perils of the sea, harbors, rivers, or other navigable waters; fuel shortages or abrupt and unexpected increase in fuel costs; collision; stranding; fire; theft, barratry, or any other crime by any person; faults or errors in navigation or management of this Vessel or of any other vessel; explosions; bursting of boilers; breakage of shafts or any defect or unseaworthiness in hull, machinery or appurtenances, equipments, furnishings, supplies or officers or crew of the Vessel or its launches or watercraft or any defect of the Carrier's premises at whatever time existing; fault or neglect of pilot, tugs, officers or members of the crew, agents, servants, independent contractors; the quality, nature or consequences of medical or surgical treatment; any loss, damage or delay arising from inherent defect, or vice or quality of the Passenger's Baggage or from the insufficiency, inadequacy of absence of Baggage marks or of address or description of such Baggage; any loss or damage caused by delay in, or prevention of sailing, prolongation of the Cruise, deviation or stoppage in transit, or from any calls at ports or variations from the scheduled or regular course of the Cruise permitted by this Ticket and Contract; seizure of the vessel under legal process; any act, omission, fault or negligence of this Passenger or any other Passenger, or any other cause or circumstances beyond the control of the Carrier, whether or not of the kind listed herein. The Passenger is hereby expressly advised that the Vessel may be powered or operated in whole or in part by nuclear power or a similar power and the Passenger hereby accepts all risks, whether known or unknown, inherent therein and agrees that the Carrier shall have no liability for injury, illness or death resulting therefrom.

13. PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS; NOTICE REQUIREMENTS AND TIME LIMITS TO CLAIM AND SUE

Any incident or accident resulting in injury, illness or death to the Passenger must be reported immediately to a Vessel's Officer. The Carrier will not be liable therefore except as provided by the law made applicable by this Contract and then only if a written claim is received by the Carrier within six (6) months of the incident or accident and suit is filed within one (1) year of the incident or accident alleged to have caused the injury, illness or death. If a written claim is not made and suit is not filed within the time provided in this Section, then the Passenger waives and releases and forever gives up any and all rights he may have to make a claim or file a suit against the Carrier for any such injury, illness or death.

14. CHOICE OF LAW: LIMITATION OF CARRIER'S LIABILITY

Applicable Law. This Ticket and Contract and all rights, liabilities and duties of the Passenger and of the Carrier will be construed in accordance with English law. The Carrier shall be entitled to the maximum protection allowed by English law, including all protection as to the amount of damages recoverable.

Limitation Carrier's Liability. The maximum total liability, if any, of the Carrier resulting from loss of life or injury to or illness of the Passenger or with respect to claims for loss of or damage to Baggage shall not exceed the amount permitted by English law. In addition to all of the limitations of and restrictions and exemptions from liability provided for in and by this Ticket and Contract, the Carrier shall also have the benefit of all limitation of and exoneration from liability and the procedures provided thereby, including but not limited to the provisions of the "Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Baggage by Sea 1974" ("Athens Convention").

The Carrier shall also have the benefits of all other limitations of or exonerations from liability, and of all other benefits of any statute or law of any country which might be applicable providing for limitation of or exoneration from liability. In no event, however, will the Carrier be liable for any damage, loss, injury, illness or death not caused by the negligence of the Carrier. The fare for the Cruise is based in part on the limitation of Carrier's liability provided for in this Ticket and Contract.

15. IF LIMITATIONS ON CARRIER'S LIABILITY DO NOT APPLY

If any claim or suit is brought against the Carrier in a place where the English law and the applicable limitations, exonerations and exemptions incorporated in this Ticket and Contract, or in the Athens Convention are legally unenforceable, then the Carrier shall not be liable for death, injury, illness, damage, delay or other loss or detriment to the Passenger or his Baggage arising out of any cause of whatsoever nature not shown to have been caused by the Carrier's negligence and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall be limited to its proportionate share of its negligence, if any, compared to the negligence of all others whose acts or omission caused or contributed to the death, injury, illness, damage or other loss or detriment.

PLACE OF SUIT

All disputes, claims and suits and matters whatsoever arising under, in connection with or incident to this Ticket or Contract shall be brought and litigated, if at all, in and before a court of proper venue located in London, England, to the exclusion of the courts of any other city, state or country. Any such claims are to be forwarded to: N. Makin, Solicitor, 1 Church Street, Swepstone, Leicester, LE67 2SA UK.

ALL WARRANTIES INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR USE AND MERCHANTABILITY ARE EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED FROM THIS TICKET AND CONTRACT. THE CARRIER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Ticket and Contract, all written notices required by this Ticket and Contract must be mailed, postage prepaid, to the Carrier.
